The copy of the report as redacted shall be admitted into evidence and considered by the court without further foundation, unless any party to the juvenile proceeding objects. The objection shall be in writing and shall specify the legal and factual basis for the objection. - 114 (1) Consider the assessment, determination, and

 115 documentation made by the qualified individual conducting

 116 the assessment;

 119 placement of the child in a residential setting provides the

 120 most effective and appropriate level of care for the child

 121 in the least restrictive environment;
 - (3) Determine whether that placement is consistent with the short-term and long-term goals for the child, as specified in the permanency plan for the child; and
- (4) Approve or disapprove the placement.

- 126 8. The court shall reassess the appropriateness for 127 the child to remain in a residential setting at every

 128 hearing subsequent to placement in a residential setting and

 129 make written findings of fact as required in subsection 7 of 130 this section, but not less than every six months, until the

 131 child is discharged to a less restrictive, nonresidential

 132 setting.
- 9. If any party to the case at any time opposes the child's placement in a residential setting, the opposing party may request a hearing. After a hearing, the court

- shall make a finding as prescribed in subsection 7 of this section.
- 138 10. The children's division may promulgate rules,
- including emergency rules, to implement the provisions of
- 140 this section and the federal Family First Prevention

- 149 powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter
- 150 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove
- 151 and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional,
- then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed

 - 210.762. 1. When a child is taken into custody by a
 - 2 juvenile officer, physician, or law enforcement official
 - 3 [under] pursuant to section 210.125 and comes under the
 - 4 jurisdiction of the court pursuant to subdivision (1) and

 - 6 placed with the division, the division may make a temporary
 - 7 placement and shall arrange for a family support team
 - 8 meeting prior to or within twenty-four hours following the
 - 9 protective custody hearing held under section 211.032. After
- 10 a child is in the division's custody [and a temporary
- 11 placement has been made], the division shall arrange an
- 12 additional family support team meeting prior to taking any
- 13 action relating to the placement of such child; except that,
- 14 when the welfare of a child in the custody of the division

- 28 participate in all family support team meetings. The family
- 29 support team meeting may include such other persons whose
- 30 attendance at the meeting may assist the team in making
- 31 appropriate decisions in the best interests of the child,
- 32 including biological family members and relatives, as
- 33 appropriate, as well as professionals who are a resource to
- 34 the family of the child, such as teachers, medical or mental
- 35 health providers who have treated the child, or clergy. In
- 36 the case of a child who is age fourteen or older, the family
- 37 support team shall include the members selected by the
- 38 child. The division may exclude an individual from a family
- 39 support team meeting or make alternative arrangements for an
- 40 individual to express his or her views if an individual
- 41 becomes disruptive to the meeting.
- 42 3. If the division finds that it is not in the best
- 43 interest of a child to be placed with relatives, the
- 44 division shall make specific findings in the division's
- 45 report detailing the reasons why the best interests of the
- 46 child necessitate placement of the child with persons other
- 47 than relatives.

- 48 [3. The division shall use the form created in 49 subsection 2 of section 210.147 to be signed upon the 50 conclusion of the meeting pursuant to subsection 1 of this 51 section confirming that all involved parties are aware of 52 the team's decision regarding the custody and placement of 53 the child. 2 inspection.

Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is 25 26 created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to 27 all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, 28 29 section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the 30 31 general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay 32 the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of 33 rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after 34 August 28, 2002, shall be invalid and void. 35
