- (b) [H] Except as provided in Subsection (6), if a perpetrator is convicted of a domestic violence offense resulting in a sentence of imprisonment, including jail, that is to be served after conviction, the court shall issue a continuous protective order at the time of the conviction or sentencing limiting the contact between the perpetrator and the victim unless the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the victim does not a have a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse.
 - (c) (i) The court shall notify the perpetrator of the right to request a hearing.
- (ii) If the perpetrator requests a hearing under this Subsection (3)(c), the court shall hold the hearing at the time determined by the court. The continuous protective order shall be in effect while the hearing is being scheduled and while the hearing is pending.
- (d) A continuous protective order is permanent in accordance with this Subsection (3) and may include:
- (i) an order enjoining the perpetrator from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic violence against the victim or other family or household member;
 - (ii) an order prohibiting the perpetrator from harassing, telephoning, contacting, or
